

NEWS FROM SOUTHSIDE

"Originals" Have Rally and Feast—Bland, O'Flaherty and Wallace Speakers.

NEGRO WANTED HAM TO-DAY

Mr. Hayne Fails to Produce Satchfield's Bill—Mr. Rudd a Vice-President.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, Nov. 11, 1112 10th Street.

The "Original" Parker-Davis-Lamb Club held last night one of the most successful rallies of the season.

The crowd was large and enthusiastic, and the speakers, who were both forceful and eloquent, were greeted with frequent applause.

Charles T. Bland, of Portsmouth; Mr. O'Flaherty and Mr. Charles Wallace were the speakers.

Mr. Bland was the first of the speakers, and was introduced as a man "identified with labor interests." In an able argument he attacked the Republican platform, laying the stress of his speech on the tariff question and imperialism.

He denounced Roosevelt for his militarism, his favor to the trusts, and magnified Parker as a man of honor and democratic sympathies. He referred to the scandalous extortion of money from the trusts for campaign purposes, and to Judge Parker's exposition of it, and said that Roosevelt himself was the liar in his denial of the charge. He referred to Roosevelt's policy of "letting the tariff be a mere tool of the Constitution in carrying out his plan of subjugation of those islands."

Mr. Bland, who is a candidate for the lieutenant-governorship, made a deep impression on his hearers, and his speech was punctuated with frequent applause and cries of "Parker."

Contrasted Candidates. Mr. O'Flaherty opened with a contrast of Parker and Roosevelt, the one for local self-government, a disciple of Jefferson; the other for imperialism, a follower of Hamilton.

Mr. O'Flaherty said that Roosevelt had overstepped the bounds of the presidential office, and by so doing had violated his oath of office. He touched upon the Panama canal scandal, and accused Roosevelt of having committed the same error which occurred in Colombia. He also made a brief discussion of the tariff.

Mr. Charles M. Wallace made a brief review of the tariff question, opened his speech with a denunciation of the tariff, and then made a brief and scathing denunciation of the Panama Canal affair.

Hon. John Lamb came in towards the last of the programme, and appeared for a few minutes.

Negro Stole a Ham. Sam Harris, colored, was arrested last night on the charge of stealing a ham from Ullman's grocery store. Mr. Ullman caught him in the act and promptly had him apprehended.

Albert Hamilton, colored, was arrested last night on the charge of buying a watch on the installment plan and selling it.

Leslie Garber, who was released from jail only last week, was drunk and down town last night, and was given lodging in the station-house.

Personals and Briefs. Rev. T. J. Gattis and wife, of North Carolina, are visiting their son on East Fifth Street.

Mr. Gattis will preach at the Fifth Street Methodist Church to-day at 11 A. M.

The attendance at Mr. Douglas Leitch's entertainment Friday night was light, owing to the downpour of rain.

The entertainment was excellent and will probably be repeated in a few days.

A large number of people are expected to attend the bill on which he said Mr. Satchfield had charged $1 for scavenger payment, and which Mr. Hague said he would show.

Mr. Malcolm Jones, of the Virginia Peninsula, and his wife and his cousins in Manchester last night.

Mr. John P. Garrett was called to Danville last night on account of the accidental killing of his nephew, who was shot while hunting. The lad was fourteen years old.

HEARTS RIGHT FIRST.

Mayor McCarthy Says This Is First Step in Temperance.

Mayor Carlton McCarthy made what the majority of the hearers last night at the Methodist Mission, called a good temperance talk.

He said that temperance, that while he respected the noble purpose of the many splendid organizations in one community for saving men from the clutches of drunkenness and the evils arising from the liquor traffic, that after all there was but one way to escape them, and that was to let the Lord have His way.

He said that masonry, old fellows and kindred organizations, and the benevolent organizations, good in their way for the relief of man, but they were big to save them and correct our laws that allowed the traffic of liquor was to continually preach Christ until men saw the light and thought of Him.

Mr. Watkins sang two solos that were greatly enjoyed.

Mr. Bradley introduced Mayor McCarthy and announced an interesting programme for next Saturday.

Hallowe'en on Chestnut Hill.

Mrs. David Jacobs and Mrs. George Bahke have been entertaining Mrs. Shupe, of Harrisburg, Pa. She was with them on Hallowe'en, and was shown how Virginians celebrate the occasion.

The home of Mrs. Bahke was chosen as the scene, and about thirty friends were invited. A cow bell that had been used in the service was the means of breaking the news to those who were there first that others were entering. A huge pumpkin, swinging in the hall, took the place of the regulation hall lamp. It was big and yellow, and its "handle" had been abstracted close up to the rim, so that it was quite transparent. The face on it was a good-natured one.

The decorations in the dining room were beautiful, and so they were in the other rooms. Games were indulged in with zest. Apples on strings were nibbled at; apples in a tub of water were gone after, and the usual Hallowe'en superstitions prevailed. Flaming jack-o'-lanterns, and the usual jack-o'-lantern, and all such games were heartily played.

Wins Stove in Raffle.

Ticket 288 won the stove raffled off last night by the Iron Monarchs' Union, No. 128. The stove may be gotten from the Richmond Stove Works.

Redskins Win.

The Redskins defeated the Beach Streets yesterday in a one-sided game. Led, full for the Redskins, was sent through guard for long gains repeatedly. Crenshaw, Herbert and Delaney, of the Redskins, also played good ball. Koiner, full for the Beach Streets, played a star game on the defense, but was unable to make gains through the Redskins' line. Webber, on end, also played a star game.

Summary: Redskins 15; Beach Streets, 0. Umpire, Mr. Richardson. Referee, Mr. Cullinan. Time of halves, ten minutes.

TEAMS MAKING MERRY.

Most of the Collegians Took in the Show Last Night.

A special train brought down more than three hundred Virginia Polytechnic Institute students to the beach. The boys had a trip of 225 miles, but were lively enough at the game yesterday. They were much in evidence. It was a third lot of youths last night that awaited the departure of their train at 11 P. M. The Beaching train, however, will not leave until 9 1/2 P. M.

Both the University and the V. P. I. football eleven attended the performance at the Bijou last night. Before the show was a happy crowd of University students merrily in the hotels with songs and laughter and other expressions of joy. They quieted down early, however. There were few University men here, and the demonstration was nothing like what it was in the Virginia team is at the Richmond, and will not leave until 2 P. M. to-day. The team and coach are well pleased with the result of yesterday's game.

A VETERAN OFFICIAL.

Mr. M. J. Thompson an Authority in the Foot-Ball World.

Mr. M. J. Thompson, who referred to Virginia V. P. I. football game yesterday, is one of the best officials in the country. He refereed the Yale-West Point game recently, and was invited to serve in the Yale-Brown game yesterday, and in two others. He is a native of the Richmond area, and because he likes the people of this city, and always enjoys his stay here. He is at Murphy's Hotel, and expects to leave this morning for his home in Connecticut.

REMAINS SENT HOME.

Brother of A. P. Thomas Takes Charge of the Body.

The remains of A. P. Thomas, the unfortunate man who was killed in the street train at Seventh and Canal Streets Friday night, were sent to the home of his brother at Basle, on the Chesapeake and Ohio, yesterday afternoon. The body was taken to the home of his brother at Basle, on the Chesapeake and Ohio, yesterday afternoon. The body was taken to the home of his brother at Basle, on the Chesapeake and Ohio, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. O'Flaherty said that Roosevelt had overstepped the bounds of the presidential office, and by so doing had violated his oath of office. He touched upon the Panama canal scandal, and accused Roosevelt of having committed the same error which occurred in Colombia. He also made a brief discussion of the tariff.

Mr. Charles M. Wallace made a brief review of the tariff question, opened his speech with a denunciation of the tariff, and then made a brief and scathing denunciation of the Panama Canal affair.

Hon. John Lamb came in towards the last of the programme, and appeared for a few minutes.

Leslie Garber, who was released from jail only last week, was drunk and down town last night, and was given lodging in the station-house.

Personals and Briefs. Rev. T. J. Gattis and wife, of North Carolina, are visiting their son on East Fifth Street.

Mr. Gattis will preach at the Fifth Street Methodist Church to-day at 11 A. M.

The attendance at Mr. Douglas Leitch's entertainment Friday night was light, owing to the downpour of rain.

The entertainment was excellent and will probably be repeated in a few days.

A large number of people are expected to attend the bill on which he said Mr. Satchfield had charged $1 for scavenger payment, and which Mr. Hague said he would show.

Mr. Malcolm Jones, of the Virginia Peninsula, and his wife and his cousins in Manchester last night.

Mr. John P. Garrett was called to Danville last night on account of the accidental killing of his nephew, who was shot while hunting. The lad was fourteen years old.

HEARTS RIGHT FIRST.

Mayor McCarthy Says This Is First Step in Temperance.

Mayor Carlton McCarthy made what the majority of the hearers last night at the Methodist Mission, called a good temperance talk.

He said that temperance, that while he respected the noble purpose of the many splendid organizations in one community for saving men from the clutches of drunkenness and the evils arising from the liquor traffic, that after all there was but one way to escape them, and that was to let the Lord have His way.

He said that masonry, old fellows and kindred organizations, and the benevolent organizations, good in their way for the relief of man, but they were big to save them and correct our laws that allowed the traffic of liquor was to continually preach Christ until men saw the light and thought of Him.

Mr. Watkins sang two solos that were greatly enjoyed.

Mr. Bradley introduced Mayor McCarthy and announced an interesting programme for next Saturday.

Hallowe'en on Chestnut Hill.

Mrs. David Jacobs and Mrs. George Bahke have been entertaining Mrs. Shupe, of Harrisburg, Pa. She was with them on Hallowe'en, and was shown how Virginians celebrate the occasion.

The home of Mrs. Bahke was chosen as the scene, and about thirty friends were invited. A cow bell that had been used in the service was the means of breaking the news to those who were there first that others were entering. A huge pumpkin, swinging in the hall, took the place of the regulation hall lamp. It was big and yellow, and its "handle" had been abstracted close up to the rim, so that it was quite transparent. The face on it was a good-natured one.

The decorations in the dining room were beautiful, and so they were in the other rooms. Games were indulged in with zest. Apples on strings were nibbled at; apples in a tub of water were gone after, and the usual Hallowe'en superstitions prevailed. Flaming jack-o'-lanterns, and the usual jack-o'-lantern, and all such games were heartily played.

Wins Stove in Raffle.

Ticket 288 won the stove raffled off last night by the Iron Monarchs' Union, No. 128. The stove may be gotten from the Richmond Stove Works.

Redskins Win.

The Redskins defeated the Beach Streets yesterday in a one-sided game. Led, full for the Redskins, was sent through guard for long gains repeatedly. Crenshaw, Herbert and Delaney, of the Redskins, also played good ball. Koiner, full for the Beach Streets, played a star game on the defense, but was unable to make gains through the Redskins' line. Webber, on end, also played a star game.

Summary: Redskins 15; Beach Streets, 0. Umpire, Mr. Richardson. Referee, Mr. Cullinan. Time of halves, ten minutes.

TEAMS MAKING MERRY.

Most of the Collegians Took in the Show Last Night.

A special train brought down more than three hundred Virginia Polytechnic Institute students to the beach. The boys had a trip of 225 miles, but were lively enough at the game yesterday. They were much in evidence. It was a third lot of youths last night that awaited the departure of their train at 11 P. M. The Beaching train, however, will not leave until 9 1/2 P. M.

Both the University and the V. P. I. football eleven attended the performance at the Bijou last night. Before the show was a happy crowd of University students merrily in the hotels with songs and laughter and other expressions of joy. They quieted down early, however. There were few University men here, and the demonstration was nothing like what it was in the Virginia team is at the Richmond, and will not leave until 2 P. M. to-day. The team and coach are well pleased with the result of yesterday's game.

A VETERAN OFFICIAL.

Mr. M. J. Thompson an Authority in the Foot-Ball World.

Mr. M. J. Thompson, who referred to Virginia V. P. I. football game yesterday, is one of the best officials in the country. He refereed the Yale-West Point game recently, and was invited to serve in the Yale-Brown game yesterday, and in two others. He is a native of the Richmond area, and because he likes the people of this city, and always enjoys his stay here. He is at Murphy's Hotel, and expects to leave this morning for his home in Connecticut.

REMAINS SENT HOME.

Brother of A. P. Thomas Takes Charge of the Body.

The remains of A. P. Thomas, the unfortunate man who was killed in the street train at Seventh and Canal Streets Friday night, were sent to the home of his brother at Basle, on the Chesapeake and Ohio, yesterday afternoon. The body was taken to the home of his brother at Basle, on the Chesapeake and Ohio, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. O'Flaherty said that Roosevelt had overstepped the bounds of the presidential office, and by so doing had violated his oath of office. He touched upon the Panama canal scandal, and accused Roosevelt of having committed the same error which occurred in Colombia. He also made a brief discussion of the tariff.

Mr. Charles M. Wallace made a brief review of the tariff question, opened his speech with a denunciation of the tariff, and then made a brief and scathing denunciation of the Panama Canal affair.

Hon. John Lamb came in towards the last of the programme, and appeared for a few minutes.

Leslie Garber, who was released from jail only last week, was drunk and down town last night, and was given lodging in the station-house.

Personals and Briefs. Rev. T. J. Gattis and wife, of North Carolina, are visiting their son on East Fifth Street.

Mr. Gattis will preach at the Fifth Street Methodist Church to-day at 11 A. M.

The attendance at Mr. Douglas Leitch's entertainment Friday night was light, owing to the downpour of rain.

The entertainment was excellent and will probably be repeated in a few days.

A large number of people are expected to attend the bill on which he said Mr. Satchfield had charged $1 for scavenger payment, and which Mr. Hague said he would show.

Mr. Malcolm Jones, of the Virginia Peninsula, and his wife and his cousins in Manchester last night.

Mr. John P. Garrett was called to Danville last night on account of the accidental killing of his nephew, who was shot while hunting. The lad was fourteen years old.

HEARTS RIGHT FIRST.

Mayor McCarthy Says This Is First Step in Temperance.

Mayor Carlton McCarthy made what the majority of the hearers last night at the Methodist Mission, called a good temperance talk.

He said that temperance, that while he respected the noble purpose of the many splendid organizations in one community for saving men from the clutches of drunkenness and the evils arising from the liquor traffic, that after all there was but one way to escape them, and that was to let the Lord have His way.

He said that masonry, old fellows and kindred organizations, and the benevolent organizations, good in their way for the relief of man, but they were big to save them and correct our laws that allowed the traffic of liquor was to continually preach Christ until men saw the light and thought of Him.

Mr. Watkins sang two solos that were greatly enjoyed.

Mr. Bradley introduced Mayor McCarthy and announced an interesting programme for next Saturday.

Hallowe'en on Chestnut Hill.

Mrs. David Jacobs and Mrs. George Bahke have been entertaining Mrs. Shupe, of Harrisburg, Pa. She was with them on Hallowe'en, and was shown how Virginians celebrate the occasion.

The home of Mrs. Bahke was chosen as the scene, and about thirty friends were invited. A cow bell that had been used in the service was the means of breaking the news to those who were there first that others were entering. A huge pumpkin, swinging in the hall, took the place of the regulation hall lamp. It was big and yellow, and its "handle" had been abstracted close up to the rim, so that it was quite transparent. The face on it was a good-natured one.

The decorations in the dining room were beautiful, and so they were in the other rooms. Games were indulged in with zest. Apples on strings were nibbled at; apples in a tub of water were gone after, and the usual Hallowe'en superstitions prevailed. Flaming jack-o'-lanterns, and the usual jack-o'-lantern, and all such games were heartily played.

Wins Stove in Raffle.

Ticket 288 won the stove raffled off last night by the Iron Monarchs' Union, No. 128. The stove may be gotten from the Richmond Stove Works.

Redskins Win.

The Redskins defeated the Beach Streets yesterday in a one-sided game. Led, full for the Redskins, was sent through guard for long gains repeatedly. Crenshaw, Herbert and Delaney, of the Redskins, also played good ball. Koiner, full for the Beach Streets, played a star game on the defense, but was unable to make gains through the Redskins' line. Webber, on end, also played a star game.

Summary: Redskins 15; Beach Streets, 0. Umpire, Mr. Richardson. Referee, Mr. Cullinan. Time of halves, ten minutes.

TEAMS MAKING MERRY.

Most of the Collegians Took in the Show Last Night.

A special train brought down more than three hundred Virginia Polytechnic Institute students to the beach. The boys had a trip of 225 miles, but were lively enough at the game yesterday. They were much in evidence. It was a third lot of youths last night that awaited the departure of their train at 11 P. M. The Beaching train, however, will not leave until 9 1/2 P. M.

Both the University and the V. P. I. football eleven attended the performance at the Bijou last night. Before the show was a happy crowd of University students merrily in the hotels with songs and laughter and other expressions of joy. They quieted down early, however. There were few University men here, and the demonstration was nothing like what it was in the Virginia team is at the Richmond, and will not leave until 2 P. M. to-day. The team and coach are well pleased with the result of yesterday's game.

A VETERAN OFFICIAL.

Mr. M. J. Thompson an Authority in the Foot-Ball World.

Mr. M. J. Thompson, who referred to Virginia V. P. I. football game yesterday, is one of the best officials in the country. He refereed the Yale-West Point game recently, and was invited to serve in the Yale-Brown game yesterday, and in two others. He is a native of the Richmond area, and because he likes the people of this city, and always enjoys his stay here. He is at Murphy's Hotel, and expects to leave this morning for his home in Connecticut.

REMAINS SENT HOME.

Brother of A. P. Thomas Takes Charge of the Body.

The remains of A. P. Thomas, the unfortunate man who was killed in the street train at Seventh and Canal Streets Friday night, were sent to the home of his brother at Basle, on the Chesapeake and Ohio, yesterday afternoon. The body was taken to the home of his brother at Basle, on the Chesapeake and Ohio, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. O'Flaherty said that Roosevelt had overstepped the bounds of the presidential office, and by so doing had violated his oath of office. He touched upon the Panama canal scandal, and accused Roosevelt of having committed the same error which occurred in Colombia. He also made a brief discussion of the tariff.

Mr. Charles M. Wallace made a brief review of the tariff question, opened his speech with a denunciation of the tariff, and then made a brief and scathing denunciation of the Panama Canal affair.

Hon. John Lamb came in towards the last of the programme, and appeared for a few minutes.

Leslie Garber, who was released from jail only last week, was drunk and down town last night, and was given lodging in the station-house.

Personals and Briefs. Rev. T. J. Gattis and wife, of North Carolina, are visiting their son on East Fifth Street.

Mr. Gattis will preach at the Fifth Street Methodist Church to-day at 11 A. M.

The attendance at Mr. Douglas Leitch's entertainment Friday night was light, owing to the downpour of rain.

The entertainment was excellent and will probably be repeated in a few days.

A large number of people are expected to attend the bill on which he said Mr. Satchfield had charged $1 for scavenger payment, and which Mr. Hague said he would show.

Mr. Malcolm Jones, of the Virginia Peninsula, and his wife and his cousins in Manchester last night.

Mr. John P. Garrett was called to Danville last night on account of the accidental killing of his nephew, who was shot while hunting. The lad was fourteen years old.

HEARTS RIGHT FIRST.

Mayor McCarthy Says This Is First Step in Temperance.

Mayor Carlton McCarthy made what the majority of the hearers last night at the Methodist Mission, called a good temperance talk.

He said that temperance, that while he respected the noble purpose of the many splendid organizations in one community for saving men from the clutches of drunkenness and the evils arising from the liquor traffic, that after all there was but one way to escape them, and that was to let the Lord have His way.

He said that masonry, old fellows and kindred organizations, and the benevolent organizations, good in their way for the relief of man, but they were big to save them and correct our laws that allowed the traffic of liquor was to continually preach Christ until men saw the light and thought of Him.

Mr. Watkins sang two solos that were greatly enjoyed.

Mr. Bradley introduced Mayor McCarthy and announced an interesting programme for next Saturday.

Hallowe'en on Chestnut Hill.

Mrs. David Jacobs and Mrs. George Bahke have been entertaining Mrs. Shupe, of Harrisburg, Pa. She was with them on Hallowe'en, and was shown how Virginians celebrate the occasion.

The home of Mrs. Bahke was chosen as the scene, and about thirty friends were invited. A cow bell that had been used in the service was the means of breaking the news to those who were there first that others were entering. A huge pumpkin, swinging in the hall, took the place of the regulation hall lamp. It was big and yellow, and its "handle" had been abstracted close up to the rim, so that it was quite transparent. The face on it was a good-natured one.

The decorations in the dining room were beautiful, and so they were in the other rooms. Games were indulged in with zest. Apples on strings were nibbled at; apples in a tub of water were gone after, and the usual Hallowe'en superstitions prevailed. Flaming jack-o'-lanterns, and the usual jack-o'-lantern, and all such games were heartily played.

Wins Stove in Raffle.

Ticket 288 won the stove raffled off last night by the Iron Monarchs' Union, No. 128. The stove may be gotten from the Richmond Stove Works.

Redskins Win.

The Redskins defeated the Beach Streets yesterday in a one-sided game. Led, full for the Redskins, was sent through guard for long gains repeatedly. Crenshaw, Herbert and Delaney, of the Redskins, also played good ball. Koiner, full for the Beach Streets, played a star game on the defense, but was unable to make gains through the Redskins' line. Webber, on end, also played a star game.

Summary: Redskins 15; Beach Streets, 0. Umpire, Mr. Richardson. Referee, Mr. Cullinan. Time of halves, ten minutes.

TEAMS MAKING MERRY.

Most of the Collegians Took in the Show Last Night.

A special train brought down more than three hundred Virginia Polytechnic Institute students to the beach. The boys had a trip of 225 miles, but were lively enough at the game yesterday. They were much in evidence. It was a third lot of youths last night that awaited the departure of their train at 11 P. M. The Beaching train, however, will not leave until 9 1/2 P. M.

Both the University and the V. P. I. football eleven attended the performance at the Bijou last night. Before the show was a happy crowd of University students merrily in the hotels with songs and laughter and other expressions of joy. They quieted down early, however. There were few University men here, and the demonstration was nothing like what it was in the Virginia team is at the Richmond, and will not leave until 2 P. M. to-day. The team and coach are well pleased with the result of yesterday's game.

A VETERAN OFFICIAL.

Mr. M. J. Thompson an Authority in the Foot-Ball World.

Mr. M. J. Thompson, who referred to Virginia V. P. I. football game yesterday, is one of the best officials in the country. He refereed the Yale-West Point game recently, and was invited to serve in the Yale-Brown game yesterday, and in two others. He is a native of the Richmond area, and because he likes the people of this city, and always enjoys his stay here. He is at Murphy's Hotel, and expects to leave this morning for his home in Connecticut.

REMAINS SENT HOME.

Brother of A. P. Thomas Takes Charge of the Body.

The remains of A. P. Thomas, the unfortunate man who was killed in the street train at Seventh and Canal Streets Friday night, were sent to the home of his brother at Basle, on the Chesapeake and Ohio, yesterday afternoon. The body was taken to the home of his brother at Basle, on the Chesapeake and Ohio, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. O'Flaherty said that Roosevelt had overstepped the bounds of the presidential office, and by so doing had violated his oath of office. He touched upon the Panama canal scandal, and accused Roosevelt of having committed the same error which occurred in Colombia. He also made a brief discussion of the tariff.

Mr. Charles M. Wallace made a brief review of the tariff question, opened his speech with a denunciation of the tariff, and then made a brief and scathing denunciation of the Panama Canal affair.

Hon. John Lamb came in towards the last of the programme, and appeared for a few minutes.

Leslie Garber, who was released from jail only last week, was drunk and down town last night, and was given lodging in the station-house.

Personals and Briefs. Rev. T. J. Gattis and wife, of North Carolina, are visiting their son on East Fifth Street.

Mr. Gattis will preach at the Fifth Street Methodist Church to-day at 11 A. M.

The attendance at Mr. Douglas Leitch's entertainment Friday night was light, owing to the downpour of rain.

The entertainment was excellent and will probably be repeated in a few days.

A large number of people are expected to attend the bill on which he said Mr. Satchfield had charged $1 for scavenger payment, and which Mr. Hague said he would show.

Mr. Malcolm Jones, of the Virginia Peninsula, and his wife and his cousins in Manchester last night.